The Most Extraordinary Fox Chase On Record.

JOHN T. DITTO'S FOX STORY

Queen is What Her Name Implies.

SHE GUARDED THE BURROW.

A Hound on The Track Continuously For 36 Hours.

The greatest fox chase of which there is any authentic record took place in the neighborhood of Long Branch, in Meade county, last week. Ben Matthews, a colored man living at Long Branch has a fox named Queen. One evening last week, when the air was cold, and his companion, Don, together with his brother, "Old Major," started for the hills near by and were not long absent when they started a vigorous hunt.

By their vigorous hunting it was known that they had a warm scent and were on the trail of a fox of a strange quality.

For several hours during the night the residents of that vicinity could hear all three hounds baying together and then the two male dogs dropped out of the run, leaving Queen to keep up the chase alone.

All night long she followed the trail and along toward morning was joined by some fresh hounds who stayed with her for a few hours, fell out, rested up and joined in the chase again at intervals during the next twenty hours.

On the second day of the chase Will Lattin, "Tige," a local hunter, and his staying qualities joined her and remained until the close of the run.

Queen was on the run, without rest, the entire 36 hours consumed in the chase. She stopped only when she had run beyond cover. After she had accomplished this she lay down and guarded her burrow and was found by her owner was no stiff and sore that she could not move a limb and had to be carried to the house.

Matthews, her owner, thinks she is the best fox found on earth and would not trade her for the best horse in Kentucky.

He says the reason her mate, Don, did not stay in the race and the fox was because he had been caught in a steel trap a few days before and had one toe lopped off. Even in this crippled condition he stayed in for hours and gave up when the wound opened and the pain preyed him from running.

This story is vouched for by John T. Ditto, who is known as an enthusiastic and truthful fox hunter.

Part Parry, of Columbus, Ga., an unforgotten thirty years, and then carried his pile by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It heals injuries and skin diseases like magic.—Short & Haynes.

A LITTLE SUFFERER.

Fans, Hands and Arms Covered With Scrofulous Humors—How a Cure Was Effected.

"When I was a year old my little boy had scrofulous on his face, hands and arms. It was worse on his chin, although the sores on his cheeks and hands were very bad. It appeared in the form of red pimples which would burst, break open and run and then scab over. After disappearing they would break out again. They caused intense itching and the little sufferer had to be watched continually to keep him from scratching the sores. We became greatly alarmed at the situation. My wife's mother had had scrofulous and the only medicine which had helped her was Hood's Sarsaparilla. We decided to give it to our boy and we noted an improvement in his case very soon. After giving him four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla the sores had all been driven out of his blood and it has never since returned." WILLIAM BARR, 416 South Williams St., South Bend, Indiana.

You can buy Hood's Sarsaparilla at all druggists. Be sure to get just Hood's.

GOOD MAN GONE.

James Pryor Minor Stricken With Heart Disease at Addison.

Dead near Addison, Ky., Mr. James Pryor Minor in the 6th year of his age, gentle and refined with a high sense of honor. He belonged to the old school who were fasted against fear. His health had been failing for a year and for weeks at times he suffered great difficulty in breathing. How blessed in old age and sickness, the Savior comes to our relief and takes us home beyond where the tribulation will never more say "amick." He desired to be buried by his father and mother in Bloomfield, Nelson county, where he was born and where he lived the greater part of his life. His funeral was preached by the Rev. Mr. Joiner from the beautiful text, "I would not live always." He formerly owned a large tract of land in Nelson county and in his younger days it was the scene of much hospitality and many festive occasions.

He was the son of William Minor, of Nelson county and a grandson of Col. Nelson Minor who was one of the farmers of the early settlement of Kentucky. He was unmarried and leaves one brother, Wm. E. Minor.

"HELLO" PROGRESS.

Telephone Men Galore in Town This Week.

THE HARRISON TOLL LINE.

Ohio Valley to Meet the Cumberland.

CONSTRUCTION WILL SOON BEGIN.

Three Companies Looking the Local Field Over.

Judging from present indications Cloverport is to be a great talking center. The representatives of three different concerns were in the city this week looking the field over.

The Ohio Valley Telephone Company has leased office rooms over the Breckinridge Bank for a period of ten years, and will establish the headquarters for the local exchange there.

J. T. Featherstone, superintendent of construction, was here Monday making measurements for the cables and preparing for the work of installing the system. He says that Cloverport will be provided with a switchboard with one hundred drops, and the local system will embrace all the latest improvements with metallic circuit and long distance communication over copper wires.

Manager A. J. of the Harrison Telephone company, came up from Owensboro, Monday, and made arrangements to put in a fine long distance telephone service. It will be operated as a toll line and will be provided with modern equipment.

Manager Boardman, of the Cumberland Valley Telephone company, with headquarters at Owensboro, was in town yesterday. The Cumberland lines are already completed to a point within four miles of town, and from here the line to the Valley company will build to the Hancock county line to meet the Cumberland line. The material for construction is now being shipped here from Louisville.

LONG ON TELEPHONES.

Three Companies Are in Existence at the Little Town of Fordville.

Fordville has three incorporated telephone companies, the Express, the Fordville Telephone company, was incorporated about three months ago. The Ohio County Telephone company saw the light of day and this week the Fordville Harrison company was organized and will be incorporated and capitalized at $1,000. The line will be a metallic circuit and the very best of service in every particular. It will parallel the Cumberland line and will connect with the Owensboro Harrison company at Fordville. Arrangements will also be made to connect with both the Fordville and Hartford and Fordville and Glendenside lines so that messages can be sent from Glendenside and stations on the line to the Fordville and all stations between them and Fordville. Arrangements are being made to build a line to Owensboro at once.

NO DUTCH NEED APPLY.

Gertie Phillips Jilted Her German Sweetheart.

And Eloped to Harry a Meade County Boy.

John Sherrill and Gertie Phillips, who reside at Ekron, four miles from Brandenburg, Ky., eloped to Jeffersonville Sunday afternoon and were married by Justice Nixon. They left home for the alleged purpose of going to church. Early Wheat All Right.

All the early sown wheat in the bottom surrounding Long Branch is looking well, but the grain sowed late in the fall is in bad condition. Farmers are thinking of breaking the ground up and putting it in oats. Some of the farmers are not yet through gathering corn. All stock is looking well.

Kicked by a Horse.

Sam Fowler, of Long Branch, was kicked by a vicious horse last week. His head and arms are very much swollen as a consequence, but fortunately the injuries are not serious.

IMPORTANT DEAL.

Captain Baker Buys a Big Farm in Ballard.

Captain R. B. Baker, of Pateville, returned yesterday from a trip to Ballard county, where he invested in a fine 100 acre farm, paying $15 per acre for the place. He is now a trade by which he may acquire 200 acres of land adjoining this purchase and will trade Breckinridge county land for the latter. Captain Baker's new farm is three miles from the railroad and is eight miles from Weyburn, the county seat of Ballard. He has bought the lands as a speculation and has no intention of moving there.

Jolly, feels there's nothing like being in time, and so being early to agitate the subject.

A Sad Death.

One of the saddest deaths of the year was that of Mrs. Viola Elmore, the young bride of Charles Elmore, which occurred at Fordville, last week. The deceased was taken sick with the grippe Jan. 18, and her illness resulted in death. The couple had lived together almost a year and the loss of his wife was a great shock to Mr. Elmore.

HE WAS A PEACH.

Looked Like an Unspoiled Country Boy.

WAS A CRACK-A-JACK FORGER.

Had Three Bad Checks for $55.00 Each.

SUCCEEDED IN PASSING ONE.

Frank Fraize Was the Victim of His Wiles.

He looked like an unspoiled country youth. His clothes were old and shabby, and exposure to the elements had made his overcoat look like Joseph's coat of biblical fame—it was one of many colors.

He had a solid countenance, and appeared to have been raised in the innermost depths of the wilds of Indiana, but as Fred D'Huy said: "That boy would fool you."

On Thursday, a youngster, apparently about eighteen years of age, appeared at the Fair and purchased about $10 worth of goods. He handled Manager Carl's check calling for $5, and asked that it be cashed and the value of the goods be deducted therefrom.

The check was drawn on the Hancock Deposit Bank, of Haverhill, and purported to have been given by Captain S. J. Baker, of Pateville, in favor of Henry S. Ball.

Carl became suspicious and refused to cash the check. The deal was off. The boy next called on Ernest C. Baber, and offered him fifty cents to cash a check for $50, but Ernest was fussy and said: "Say, no, Pauline."

He then went to the bank and offered the check for payment. Cashier Skillman questioned the boy, and he was unable to cash the check. He said the check was in payment for services he had rendered Captain Baker and also for cattle he had sold the latter. He said he lived within three miles of Mr. Baker and told him a tale that the bank officials finally cashed the check.

The youth then went to F. N. D'Huy's, where he bought a $38 gold watch, and offered another check for $55. It was drawn on the same parties, and was identical the same as the first check.

Mr. D'Huy took the check to the bank to see if it was good, and the cashier refused to believe that something was rotten in Denmark, and they went to the boy and took the $35 in cash that had been paid on the check by the bank away from him.

Mr. D'Huy's deal was off. The youth still had another check for $35 on his person, and he went over to F. Fraize's, where he purchased $7 worth of merchandise, presented the check in payment and received $18 in change.

He then slipped out. He thought that detective Hicks will have him under arrest in twenty-four hours, he expected.

He was a case for him and it is understood that detective Hicks will have him under arrest in twenty-four hours, he expected.

It is rumored that the youth tried to pass checks in Fordville the same day he operated here, but was unsuccessful.

COMPLIMENTED.

President Praises a Well-Known Educator.

Says the Guston correspondent: Here is a great compliment to Mr. W. T. Lopp, formerly of Harrison county, Ind., but who is at present and has been for the past 10 or 15 years teaching school in Meade county under the employment of the State. It will be remembered that Mr. Lopp gave an entertainment and lecture here in Guston, a kind of magic lantern show representing scenes in Alaska and Greenland. He is a brother to Mrs. Baxter, wife of Dr. A. A. Baxter of this place. Well here comes the compliment and honor from the President himself in his message to Congress, and is put as follows: "The hardships and perils encountered by the members of the overland expedition in their great journey through an almost unbroken region, a barren waste of ice and snow, facing death itself every day for nearly four months over a route never before traversed by white men, with no relief, but at the end of the journey, carrying relief and cheer to 275 distressed citizens of our country, all make another glorious page in the history of American heroism." The President concludes by asking the thanks of Congress to the officers and men of the party with good medals of honor to those of the overland expedition and $10,000 for the bodies of the men who died in the expedition. They awarded the relief expedition. They thanked the men of the "Globe" in recognizing a willing host.

THE family rule that leap year is every calendar year with number divisible by four will be broken in 1900, which fact need not be regarded as an indication that even this it will be time for a change. There is no leap year for 1900. February, 1900 will have but 28 days, the extra day not appearing from 1896 to 1904. Centenary years are leap years. With three complete telephone lines within her corporate limits talk will certainly be cheap at Louisville.

The Louisville minister who asks: "Is there a real hell?" evidently does not know how hot the "Faint City" is.

The weather of the past week has demonstrated that the ground hog's good omen is a prophet as the balance of the Emancipator.

See Breckinridge county farmer got over $11,000 for his bunch of stock cattle last week. The "Emancipator" had better look to his laurels.

Catharinepatheary that France is quietly preparing for war. The French note of quiet, however, is no more so.

William A. Clark, Montana's Senator-elect has awarded this moral old town to a realization of the fact that crime has not yet disappeared from the face of the earth.

THE MODERN NANNY.
Eskerton Evans, of the Dispatch, was undoubtedly aware of the fact that that paper would be a losing venture for its stockholders months ago. It would have been more to his credit for him to have warned them than it is. Now, Evans has not been treated well by Carter. The latter was Evans' father's friend and clipped off his neck of power. He now says the role of Nanny and is endeavoring to pull down the pillars that support the Dispatch even though he is buried in the ruins.

Good Blood!

Your heart beats over one hundred thousand times each day. One hundred thousand supplies of good or bad blood to your brain. Which is it?

If bad, impure blood, then your brain aches. You are troubled with drowsiness yet clear-headed as night. You have no nerve power. Your food does you but little good.

Stimulants, tonics, headache powders, cannot cure you; but will. It makes the liver, kidneys, skin and bowels perform their proper work. It removes all impurities from the blood. And it makes the blood rich in its life-giving properties.

To Hasten Recovery.

You will be more rapidly cured if you take a laxative dose of Ayer's pills each night. And take Ayer's Sufferer's Liver and Bowel Pills.

WHAT WE'LL DO.

This London Outlook says: "For the United States to leave the Philippines without war would be to let loose upon the world." The Outlook should not allow its ears to get the best of it.

WELL-TO-DO NEW SENATOR.

W. A. CLARK, Senator-elect from Montana, says $100,000,000. Taking into account all the various incomes, interests with which he has a connection, he probably stands, with his own wealth, surrounded by $100,000,000 of capital.

In Nassau piano playing on Sunday is considered a crime and is punished by a fine. In my mother's house the piano was never opened Sunday except for sacred music.

In some schools in Pennsylvania the pupils are taught to write or draw with the left hand, as well as the right, and thus to become ambidextrous. I like that, and think it is commendable.

Many thanks to Yellow Lake correspondent for replying to my question as to its location. I now have a very good idea of where it is and it was quite romantically named as well as romantically situated.

Ratify the peace treaty, and then deal with questions of internal policy. Let us be a unit in dealing with any foreign foe. This is no time to talk about a Republican government, but an American government.

As a matter of course narrow minded individuals must always lack broadness of mental outlook. But how glad we are that many live in our hearts who are appreciative, warm-hearted and whole souled.

Miss Agnes Martin has a music class in Owensboro. She with her friend, Miss Mathews, spent a few days at home before commencing her class. Agnes is a brilliant performer and has had superior advantages.

Senator J. C. Blackburn and President McKinley were fast friends when in the House together. The Kentucky though in radical opposition to the Union politically pronounced him a gentleman and an able politician.

Mrs. Christie is a great suffragist, and finds time to do much work and much writing on the subject she considers most and divine. I'll stick to my old theme. I have never wanted to vote, never want to, but I don't want Mister, Master, Lord-of-Creation, if you please, to say we shall not.

I notice in the cities and towns small entertainments or a series of "at homes" are very popular as much in vogue. This is much more desired and far more enjoyable than to entertain a mass or a crash at one time. A few congenial friends to assemble avoid worry and trouble of serving on an elaborate scale.

The public officers of Louisville seem determined not to admit a Kentucky product into their market and yet the Breckinridge county gold for ten years is dismissed the Barber for five. If I were old Breckinridge county I'd kick through Louisville and hit me to Cincinnati.

Louisville should patronize home products, if not make her list by taking your custom elsewhere.

Miss cousin Senator George, H. Alexander, of Louisville, the widely known democrat and member of the State Senate, is out as a candidate for railroad Commissioner. George was popular in the Senate and was sent there by a handsome majority. He was a Goebel man. He seems to be a leading candidate just now. In no other part of the world is blushing so much in vogue as in Russia. From this it is inferred that the Russian is a state and it is more of a greeting than a crime. Mrs. Calvin Brice "old clothes sale," or, Miss or Miss—anybody else whose wealth is represented by six dresses—can sell their old clothes on account of going into mourning. But think of an ordinary, everyday mortal selling out his or her wardrobe! Such mortals give them away to their "poor kin," or sell them clandestinely or surreptitiously. There is a good deal in a name, too, as well as in a dress.

I sympathize with any one who has trouble in memorizing lengthy pieces of music and all cases bear me out in my conviction that memory as well as style is a specific quality of the mind which we either have or have to do without and all claims which are made for certain methods that make it possible for every one to memorize: are spacious and fraudulent. One may understand the form of a piece, analyze it, have it plot on the finger and nail.

Mr. W. D. Ashcraft and his associate made of the examination and prize awarded, last time for publication last week. The commencement will be the first Saturday night in March.

Rev. Mr. Littlefield and wife, Misses Estella Elder, Lillian Rhodes, Mabel Hardin, and Beal Grinnell had a pleasant and a fine dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bondurant, and Miss Annie, last Sunday.

Channey M. Depew will have a chance no doubt to make another kind of speech, as well as after-dinner orator, for his chance to be elected United States Senator from New York are certainly flattering.

We, as a sister Republic, have much sympathy for France, who has enemies at home and abroad. That Paulola incident and the Dreyfus case have added fuel to the flame, which will not be easily extinguished.

Mrs. Wm. Rhodes entertained Judge S. F. Woodliffe and wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Bluff, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gough, Dr. and Mrs. Burch, and Miss S. Estella Elder last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes and their daughter, Misses Lillian and Virginia, understand the art of pleasant "at home."

The class in literature has finished their "Ivory." We will all admit there is a power and fascination about the book not to be related. The pure, lofty aims of the author are everywhere apparent. But why would it not make a good drama on the stage? The audience would leave disappointed and dissatisfied.

That is the highest education which fits one for the greatest usefulness in life. A woman who can turn her attention to the needs and duties of the great world about her is eminently one of "higher education." On the other hand one who knows all the sciences and languages of the scientific realm and does nothing for the world is a failure.

Mr. George Yeakey has been so long identified with the people of Meade county that it seems almost impossible to think of him as leaving for good and all. Mr. Yeakey has been the leading merchant of this place since his earliest recollection, and he was a merchant in deed and in truth. His son, Ed Yeakey, and his nephew, George Reiman, will continue business as the old, well known stand, with no change otherwise.

I have an interesting letter from Miss Sue Estella Elder, whose school at Payneville closes this week, and which she has taught successfully. She will be here next week to attend Brandenburg Normal and my music class. She expresses herself in glowing terms of Mr. A. C. Burton's method of teaching, and says she would go anywhere else. Sue is a bright, lovable girl, and has friends galore in old Brandenburg who will welcome her back. She reads the News, and like everybody else, likes it.

I have intended several times to narrate the loss of Mr. John Frakes' tobacco barn, in which was stored a quantity of the wood, but I would escape my mind. Mr. Frakes has suffered severely from fire in the past two years, and he has had great sympathy. I have no often thought of his wife's (Miss Carrie we all love to call her) beautiful resignation under all circumstances, death or disaster. She is a true Christian character, faithful in every duty, church, Sabbath school, Ladies' aid, cheerful, active and efficient in each capacity.

Speaking of graduates, diploma, etc., I would issue certificates, give prizes (if I had the say) to those young people who would strive to gain some command of language, and learn to use choice and select expressions in conversation. It is deplorable, the lack of words at the command of the majority of young girls and boys, and equally as deplorable to think how very few can conduct even a medium conversation. I heard a bright young lady say: "I am actually deprecating for fear some one will say I am top-loftical should I use choice language?"

Already there is much interest manifested here in the May music festival, and I have been asked repeatedly if there will be a class, large and small. Yea, I will take my class, large and small, and all friends will be welcome to join.

My present intention is to hear Marcello Scarbich, whose equals were found in Pratt and Catherine Nilsson in their prime. Miss Sembick is a member of the Grand grand opera company, and is a "banger" from brain, heart and throat. But majority will rule when we

DISEASES

THAT KILL

Peruna works harmoniously with nature to eject the tubercles from the lungs, and works so successfully that if there is a cure for consumption Peruna is the remedy.

Read this letter from Mrs. H. A. Tyner, of Four Oaks, N. C., about her daughter, Mrs. L. Keene. She says: Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

Dear Sirs:—My daughter had every symptom of consumption—suppression of menses, night sweats and great emaciation. She was so weak that none of our neighbors thought she could live.

In May Mr. C. R. Adams, of this place, who had taken Peruna, told me she was getting stronger, and in twelve months she seemed to be as well as she ever was in her life. I feel, and so does every one that knew about her case, that Peruna saved her life.

My daughter's name is Mrs. L. Keene. I will leave. Mrs. L. Keene has made a list of emotional diseases in New York this season. New York is favored above all other cities of the earth, for she gets weeks and weeks of grand opera by the most famous entertainers in the world. London is not so favored as regards lengthy periods of warbling.

These are dangerous lesions for the health. Croup, colds and throat troubles lead rapidly to Consumption. A bottle of One Minute Cure would cure at the right time will preserve life, wealth and a large amount of money.—Short and Haynes.

That Cough Hangs On

You have used all sorts of cough remedies but it does not yield; it is too deep seated. It may wear itself out in time, but it is more liable to produce la grippe, pneumonia or a serious throat affection. You need something that will give you strength and build up the body.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

will do this when everything else fails. There is no doubt about it. It nourishes, strengthens, builds up and makes the body strong and healthy, not only to throw off this hard cough, but to fortify the system against further attack. If you are run down or emaciated you should certainly take this nourishing food medicine.
